PRIOR NOTICE OF RELIANCE ON GROUNDS 1B, 2ZA TO 2ZD, 4, 4A, 5 TO 5H, 6A AND / OR 18
IN SCHEDULE 2 TO THE HOUSING ACT 1988

Date: 13/07/2026

To: Jude Hill (the "Tenant")

From: LRIP E&C H4 LP (Company No. LP018939) of Level 7 1 Eversholt Street, London, NW1 2DN (the "Landlord")

Property:

Tenancy Agreement: The assured periodic tenancy agreement to be entered into by the Landlord and Tenant (and guarantor, where applicable)

The Tenancy Agreement will be an assured periodic tenancy, which means that the Landlord can only recover possession of the Property on certain grounds as set out in the Housing Act 1988. Some of these grounds require the Landlord to give you, as Tenant, notice before the Tenancy Agreement is entered into, so that the Landlord might rely on those grounds in the future.

By way of this document, the Landlord gives the Tenant prior notice, in advance of entering into the Tenancy Agreement, that it may seek possession of the Property in reliance on any one or more of the following grounds, where applicable: grounds 1B, 2ZA to 2ZD, 4, 4A, 5 to 5H, 6A and / or 18 in Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988.

The grounds are set out below and can also be found:

- at Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988, here:
<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/1988/50/schedule/2>; and
- included in government guidance titled "Form 3A: Legal wording for possession grounds" (along with details of all other grounds for possession), here: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/assured-tenancy-forms>

For the avoidance of doubt, the grounds are set out below for your reference only and in the event of any contradiction between the wording of the grounds as set out in this prior notice and the wording of the grounds as set out in the Housing Act 1988, the wording of the Housing Act 1988 will prevail.

Next steps

You should read this prior notice carefully. If you have any questions about it, you should seek independent legal advice.

Grounds

Ground 1B

The following conditions are met—

- a) the landlord who is seeking possession intends—
 - i. to sell a freehold or leasehold interest in the dwelling-house,
 - ii. to grant a lease of the dwelling-house for a term certain of more than 21 years which is not terminable before the end of that term by notice given by or to the landlord, or
 - iii. to grant an assured tenancy to another person;
- b) the assured tenancy on which the dwelling-house is let did not come into being by virtue of any provision of Schedule 1 to the Rent Act 1977 or section 4 of the Rent (Agriculture) Act 1976;
- c) the landlord who is seeking possession is a private registered provider of social housing;
- d) the assured tenancy was entered into pursuant to a rent-to-buy agreement;
- e) the period stated in that agreement has expired;
- f) the landlord who is seeking possession has complied with—
 - i. any provision of the rent-to-buy agreement requiring the landlord to offer the dwelling-house for sale to the tenant, and
 - ii. any requirements in the agreement about such an offer.

In this ground—

“rent-to-buy agreement” means an agreement in writing which—

- a) provides for the tenant to pay rent that is no higher than 80% of market rent (and here “rent” and “market rent” include any amount payable by way of service charge), and
- b) gives notice that the landlord intends after a period stated in the agreement which is not less than 5 years or, for dwelling-houses in Greater London, 10 years from the beginning of the tenancy to offer the dwelling-house for sale to the tenant.

Ground 2ZA

The landlord who is seeking possession—

- a) holds the interest in the dwelling-house under a superior tenancy where—
 - i. the superior landlord has given a valid notice to terminate that tenancy as a result of which the superior tenancy will end within the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant date, or
 - ii. the superior tenancy is a fixed term tenancy of a term certain which will expire (if the tenancy does not come to an end earlier) within the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant date, and

- b) is, or, in the case of joint landlords seeking possession, at least one of them is—
- i. a private registered provider of social housing,
 - ii. a tenant of the superior landlord under a tenancy of an agricultural holding within the meaning of the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986 which is a tenancy to which that Act applies, or a farm business tenancy within the meaning of the Agricultural Tenancies Act 1995,
 - iii. a person who held the dwelling-house for the purpose of making it available for occupation as supported accommodation, or
 - iv. a company of which a local authority owns at least 50% of the issued share capital.

Ground 2ZB

The landlord who is seeking possession holds the interest in the dwelling-house under a superior tenancy which is a fixed term tenancy of a term certain of more than 21 years and—

- a) the fixed term will expire (if the tenancy does not come to an end earlier) within the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant date, or
- b) if the superior tenancy has continued following the expiry of the fixed term, any party to the superior tenancy has served a valid notice to terminate that tenancy as a result of which the superior tenancy will end within the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant date.

Ground 2ZC

The landlord who is seeking possession became the landlord by virtue of section 18 no more than 6 months before the date on which the possession proceedings were commenced, and the previous landlord under the assured tenancy was, or, in the case of previous joint landlords, at least one of them was—

- a) a private registered provider of social housing,
- b) a tenant of the superior landlord under a tenancy of an agricultural holding within the meaning of the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986 which is a tenancy to which that Act applies, or a farm business tenancy within the meaning of the Agricultural Tenancies Act 1995,
- c) a person who held the dwelling-house for the purpose of making it available for occupation as supported accommodation, or
- d) a company of which a local authority owns at least 50% of the issued share capital.

Ground 2ZD

The landlord who is seeking possession became the landlord by virtue of section 18, no more than 6 months before the date on which the possession proceedings were commenced, as a result of a superior tenancy which was a fixed term tenancy of a term certain of more than 21 years coming to an end—

- a) on the expiry of the fixed term,
- b) within the period of 12 months ending with the date on which the fixed term would have expired if the tenancy had not come to an end, or
- c) after the expiry of the fixed term, as a result of a valid notice to terminate the tenancy.

Ground 4

At some time within the period of twelve months ending with the beginning of the tenancy, the dwelling-house was let on a tenancy falling within paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to this Act and—

- c) if the tenancy arose by succession as mentioned in section 39(5), notice was given to the previous tenant under Case 14 of Schedule 15 to the Rent Act 1977, and
- d) the tenancy is not an assured agricultural occupancy in respect of which the agricultural worker condition is fulfilled by virtue of paragraph 3 of Schedule 3.

Ground 4A

The following conditions are met—

- a) the dwelling-house is in an HMO or is an HMO,
- b) the tenant meets the student test when the tenancy is entered into,
- c) the landlord or, in the case of joint landlords, at least one of them, gives the tenant, before the tenancy is entered into, a written statement of the landlord's wish to be able to recover possession on the basis that—
 - i. the tenant meets the student test when the tenancy is entered into, and
 - ii. the landlord intends, on the next occasion on which the dwelling-house is let, to let it to a tenant who meets the student test when that new tenancy is entered into,
- d) the period—
 - i. beginning with the day on which the tenancy was entered into, and
 - ii. ending with the day on which the tenant was entitled to possession of the dwelling-house,is six months or less,
- e) the relevant date falls within the period beginning with 1 June and ending with 30 September in any year, and
- f) the landlord seeking possession intends, on the next occasion on which the dwelling-house is let, to let it to a tenant who meets the student test when that new tenancy is entered into.

For the purposes of the conditions in paragraphs (b), (c) and (f), a tenant meets the student test when a tenancy is entered into if—

- a) the tenant is a full-time student at that time, or
- b) at that time, the landlord reasonably believes that the tenant would become a full-time student during the tenancy.

But, in a case where two or more persons are or would be the tenant, the tenant does not meet the student test unless all of those persons meet that test.

In this ground, "full-time student" means a person receiving education provided by means of a full-time course—

- a) of any description mentioned in Schedule 6 to the Education Reform Act 1988 provided by an institution in England or Wales;
- b) of any description mentioned in section 38(2) of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992 provided by an institution in Scotland;
- c) of any description mentioned in Schedule 1 to the Further Education (Northern Ireland) Order 1997 (S.I. 1997/1772 (N.I. 15)) provided by an institution in Northern Ireland.

In a case where, because of paragraph 8(7) of Schedule 1 to the 1988 Act, a tenancy becomes an assured tenancy, the condition in paragraph (c) of the first paragraph of this ground is met if the written statement referred to there is given within the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the tenancy becomes an assured tenancy.

Ground 5

The dwelling-house is held for the purpose of being available for occupation by a minister of religion as a residence from which to perform the duties of his office and—

- b) the court is satisfied that the dwelling-house is required for occupation by a minister of religion as such a residence,
- c) if the tenancy arose by succession as mentioned in section 39(5), notice was given to the previous tenant under Case 15 of Schedule 15 to the Rent Act 1977, and
- d) the tenancy is not an assured agricultural occupancy in respect of which the agricultural worker condition is fulfilled by virtue of paragraph 3 of Schedule 3.

Ground 5A

The landlord seeking possession requires the dwelling-house for the purpose of housing a qualifying agricultural worker.

For the purpose of this ground a person is a “qualifying agricultural worker” in case A or B.

Case A is where—

- a) the person will be employed in agriculture as a seasonal or permanent employee under a contract of employment, and
- b) the employer under that contract is—
 - a. the landlord, or
 - b. in the case of joint landlords seeking possession, at least one of those landlords.

Case B is where—

- a) the person will be—
 - i. employed in agriculture under a contract of employment, but the employer under that contract is not the landlord or, in the case of joint landlords, any of those landlords, or
 - ii. working in agriculture under a contract that is not a contract of employment, whether the contract is express or implied and (if express) whether oral or in writing,
- b) the person will be employed or working in agriculture under that contract wholly or mainly for

- i. the landlord, or
- ii. in the case of joint landlords seeking possession, at least one of the landlords, and
- c) the relevant landlord intends that employment or work to continue for at least six months after the relevant date;

and here “relevant landlord” means the landlord, or whichever of the joint landlords, the person will be wholly or mainly working for.

In this ground—

“agriculture” has the same meaning as in the Rent (Agriculture) Act 1976 (see section 1 of that Act);

“contract of employment” has the meaning given by section 230(2) of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

Ground 5B

The landlord seeking possession—

- a) is a private registered provider of social housing,
- b) holds the dwelling-house for the purpose of accommodating persons who meet requirements connected with their employment, and
- c) requires the dwelling-house to let it under a new tenancy to a person who meets those requirements, and the tenant in possession does not fulfil those requirements.

Ground 5C

The dwelling-house was let to the tenant in consequence of the tenant's employment—

- a) by the landlord seeking possession,
- b) in the case of joint landlords seeking possession, by at least one of them,
- c) by a previous landlord under the tenancy, or
- d) pursuant to an agreement between any of those landlords and the employer, and either—

- a) the tenant has ceased to be in that employment, or
- b) the tenancy was granted for the purpose of providing the tenant with accommodation during the early period of their employment, that purpose has been fulfilled and the landlord seeking possession intends to let the dwelling-house to another current or future employee of the employer.

In this ground, “the employer” means the tenant's employer at the time the tenant entered the tenancy.

For the purposes of this ground, at a time when the landlord is or was the Secretary of State, employment by a health service body, as defined in section 60(7) of the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990, or by a Local Health Board, shall be regarded as employment by the Secretary of State.

This ground also applies to the letting of a dwelling-house to a tenant in consequence of the tenant's service in the office of constable, but with the following modifications.

"Employment" means service in the office of constable.

In the first paragraph of this ground, in paragraph (d), "the employer" means any of the following persons —

- a) the chief officer of a police force;
- b) a policing body;
- c) in relation to a constable's service under the direction and control of a person who is not a constable (the "senior person")—
 - i. the senior person, or
 - ii. a person or body with the function of maintaining or securing the maintenance of the body of which the senior person is a member.

The first paragraph of this ground has effect as if the following were substituted for the second paragraph (b)—

"(b) the tenancy was granted for a particular purpose relating to the tenant's service as a constable and—

- i. that purpose has been fulfilled, or
- ii. the tenancy is no longer required for that purpose."

In those modifications—

- a) "service in the office of a constable" includes a constable's service under the direction and control of a person who is not a constable;
- b) "chief officer of a police force" means—
 - i. a chief officer of police (which has the same meaning as in the Police Act 1996 — see section 101(1) of that Act),
 - ii. the chief constable of the Ministry of Defence Police,
 - iii. the chief constable of the British Transport Police,
 - iv. the chief constable of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary,
 - v. the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland, or
 - vi. the chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland;
- c) "policing body" means—

- i. a local policing body (which has the same meaning as in the Police Act 1996 — see section 101(1) of that Act),
- ii. the Secretary of State in relation to the Ministry of Defence Police,
- iii. the British Transport Police Authority,
- iv. the Civil Nuclear Police Authority,
- v. the Scottish Police Authority, or
- vi. the Northern Ireland Policing Board.

Ground 5D

The landlord seeking possession is a private registered provider of social housing, the tenancy agreement includes a requirement connected with the tenant's employment and the tenant no longer fulfils that requirement.

Ground 5E

The landlord seeking possession requires possession of the dwelling-house to let it as supported accommodation where—

- a) the landlord holds the dwelling-house for the purpose of making it available for occupation as supported accommodation, and
- b) the tenant did not enter the assured tenancy for the purpose of receiving care, support or supervision.

Ground 5F

The dwelling-house was supported accommodation when the tenancy was granted and any of the following applies—

- a) the tenancy was granted for the purpose of providing the tenant with support services for a limited time in order to enable the tenant to be able to live in other accommodation in the future and the period for which those support services were to be provided has ended;
- b) a person other than the landlord provides or provided support services to the tenant, but—
 - i. the support services have come to an end or the person is not fulfilling their obligations under the arrangements for the provision of those services, and
 - ii. where the dwelling-house is not managed accommodation, the landlord has used reasonable endeavours to find another person to provide support services to the tenant but has not been able to do so;
- c) where the accommodation or support services were funded wholly or partly by someone other than the landlord or the tenant—
 - i. that funding is no longer being provided,
 - ii. where the dwelling-house is not managed accommodation, the landlord used reasonable endeavours to identify alternative funding before the relevant date but was not able to do so, and

- iii. it would not be reasonable for the landlord to continue to provide accommodation or for the person who provided support services to continue that provision in the circumstances;
- d) the financial viability of the landlord or of supported accommodation or support services the landlord provides to others would, in the landlord's reasonable opinion, be threatened if the landlord were to continue to provide or fund a supported accommodation project of which the tenant's dwelling-house forms part and the landlord used reasonable endeavours to identify alternative funding for the project before the relevant date but was not able to do so;
- e) the tenant does not need the level of support services that are provided;
- f) the tenant does not need any support services;
- g) the support services that are provided do not meet the tenant's needs;
- h) the dwelling-house has physical features intended to enable persons with needs for particular support services to live more independently than they could do so without those features and those physical features are not needed by the tenant;
- i) the dwelling-house is physically unsuitable for a person with the tenant's needs for support services to live in.

In paragraph (d), "supported accommodation project" means—

- a) supported accommodation consisting of two or more dwelling-houses in the same building as, or otherwise nearby, each other,
- b) supported accommodation consisting of two or more dwelling-houses occupied by tenants who receive support services of a similar kind, or
- c) support services of a similar kind provided to tenants of two or more dwelling-houses that are supported accommodation.

In this ground, references to the "landlord" are to the landlord who is seeking possession.

Ground 5G

The tenant's occupation of the dwelling-house was (at any time during the period of occupation) in pursuance of a local housing authority's duty to the tenant under section 193 of the Housing Act 1996 and—

- a) the local housing authority has notified the landlord that the tenancy is not required for the purposes of that duty, and
- b) the relevant date is no more than 12 months after the date on which the local housing authority notified the landlord as mentioned in paragraph (a).

In this ground "local housing authority" means a district council, a county council in England for an area for which there is no district council, a London borough council, the Common Council of the City of London or the Council of the Isles of Scilly.

Ground 5H

The landlord seeking possession is a registered provider of social housing or a charity and—

- a) the tenancy was granted because the tenant met one or more eligibility conditions,

- b) a written tenancy agreement set out the eligibility condition (the “specified condition”) or the eligibility conditions (the “specified conditions”) that the tenant met,
- c) either—
 - i. the tenant no longer meets the specified condition or specified conditions, or
 - ii. the tenancy was granted in order to provide accommodation for a limited period to help the tenant transition to living independently and that period has come to an end,
- d) the rent is no higher than 80% of market rent (and here “rent” and “market rent” include any amount payable by way of service charge), and
- e) the tenancy was not granted—
 - i. pursuant to a nomination as mentioned in section 159(2)(c) of the Housing Act 1996,
 - ii. as a tenancy of supported accommodation, or
 - iii. in pursuance of a local housing authority’s duty under section 193 of the Housing Act 1996.

Each of the following is an “eligibility condition” for the purposes of this ground—

- a) the tenant is in work, or work of a description specified in the condition, for which the tenant is paid;
- b) the tenant is actively seeking work, or work of a description specified in the condition, for which the tenant would be paid;
- c) the tenant is—
 - i. of a particular age, or
 - ii. within a particular range of ages, specified in the condition.

For the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of “eligibility condition”, a description of work may (in particular) be expressed by reference to—

- a) work for a particular employer or description of employer or work at a particular place of work or description of place of work;
- b) the amount which the tenant is paid for the work;
- c) the duration or expected duration of the contract or other arrangement under which the work is done.

In this ground a reference—

- a) to work includes self-employment;
- b) to seeking work includes seeking to become self-employed.

The question of whether the tenant no longer meets the specified condition or specified conditions is to be determined for the purposes of this ground in accordance with the terms of the tenancy agreement.

But if—

- a) the terms of the tenancy agreement do not make any provision about that question,
- b) there are two or more specified conditions, and
- c) the tenant no longer meets one or more of those conditions, the tenant no longer meets the specified conditions for the purposes of this ground.

The Secretary of State may by regulations (“eligibility condition regulations”) make provision (including provision amending this ground)—

- a) to add, vary or remove any eligibility condition;
- b) about the meaning of any eligibility condition.

Eligibility condition regulations may make different provision for different purposes.

A statutory instrument containing eligibility condition regulations may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Ground 6A

These conditions are met—

- a) the landlord seeking possession (the “current landlord”) is a relevant social landlord;
- b) the dwelling-house (the “current home”) was made available for occupation by the tenant, or a predecessor in title of the tenant, to enable redevelopment of another dwelling-house (the “previous home”) which—
 - i. was the only or principal home of the tenant or predecessor in title, and
 - ii. was occupied by the tenant or predecessor in title under a tenancy (the “previous tenancy”) of which the landlord was—
 - A. a relevant social landlord, or
 - B. a registered provider of social housing other than a private registered provider of social housing;
- c) alternative accommodation that—
 - i. consists of the previous home and is affordable, or
 - ii. consists of other premises and is affordable, in an appropriate location and not overcrowded, is available for the tenant or will be available for the tenant when the order for possession takes effect;

- d) that alternative accommodation is to be let as a separate dwelling with adequate security of tenure.

For the purpose of this ground, accommodation—

- a) is let “with adequate security of tenure” if it is let—
 - i. on an assured tenancy, or
 - ii. on terms which will, in the opinion of the court, afford to the tenant security of tenure reasonably equivalent to the security afforded by an assured tenancy;
- b) is “affordable” if it—
 - i. is no more expensive than the previous home, making these assumptions—
 - A. that the redevelopment of the previous home has not taken place, and
 - B. that the tenant, or predecessor in title, has continued to be the tenant of the previous home under the previous tenancy, or
 - ii. is reasonably suitable to the means of the tenant;
- c) is “in an appropriate location” if it is—
 - i. reasonably close to the previous home, or
 - ii. reasonably suitable to the needs of the tenant and the tenant’s family as regards proximity to place of work;
- d) is “overcrowded” if the result of the occupation of the accommodation by the tenant and the tenant’s family would be that it would be an overcrowded dwelling for the purposes of Part 10 of the Housing Act 1985.

In this Ground—

“redevelopment”, in relation to the dwelling-house that is the previous home, means—

- a) demolishing or reconstructing the whole or a substantial part of the dwelling-house, or
- b) carrying out substantial works on the dwelling-house or any part of it, or any building of which it forms part;

“relevant social landlord” has the same meaning as in Ground 6.

Ground 18

The tenancy is of supported accommodation and the tenant has unreasonably refused to co-operate with the person providing support services with regard to those services.
